IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

No. 13-60006

NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD,

Petitioner,

v.

OPEN DOOR RETAIL GROUP, INCORPORATED,

Respondent.

Petition for Review of an Order of the National Labor Relations Board

Before HIGGINBOTHAM, OWEN, and SOUTHWICK, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:

The National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) found that Open Door Retail Group, Inc. (Open Door) violated the National Labor Relations Act in connection with the discharge of Vanda Jordan. The NLRB issued two decisions ordering Open Door to offer Jordan full reinstatement to her former job or a substantially equivalent position, and pay her back pay of $14,431, plus any additional back pay through the offer of reinstatement, and interest through the date of payment. The NLRB applied to this court for summary entry of judgment to enforce the two orders, which this court granted on February 27, 2013, after Open Door failed to respond. The NLRB now petitions this court to hold Open Door in civil contempt; the NLRB alleges Open Door has failed and refused to comply with this Court's judgment by failing and refusing to: 1) offer Vanda Jordan reinstatement to her former job or to a substantially equivalent position; 2) pay her any amount owed to her under the judgment; and 3) notify her in writing that it has removed any reference to her unlawful discharge from its files and that said discharge will not be used against her in any way.

Pursuant to our authority under Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 48, the court appoints Magistrate Judge John R. Froeschner to serve as a special master in this case. The court refers the NLRB's motion to hold Open Door in civil contempt to Judge Froeschner to recommend factual findings and a disposition of the motion.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
